

Masters Conference for Legal Professionals

October 13 - 14, 2009

Ronald Reagan Building
1300 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington, D.C.

Please join us as a sponsor for the Masters Conference 2009 held at The Ronald Reagan Building in Washington, D.C. October 13-14, 2009.

The Masters Conference is a boutique educational forum where a select group of speakers, vendors and attendees convene to engage in a proactive collaboration on current challenges in the legal space. As a global legal conference, Masters takes the lead to differentiate itself while consistently raising the bar as the most well-respected conference in the Legal Technology industry.

As an industry leader, Masters is building its image of mastery in our field through different promotional events, conferences, membership and publications which offer innovative ideas, cutting-edge topics and important solutions. The Masters advantage is that we have a different focus that caters to a niche target audience of high level decision makers who steer the course of the industry.

Sincerely,

Sasha L. Hefler
